Albany Police Believe Child May Be George Lute, Who Disappeared Saturday.

RESEMBLED DEAD LAD.

Autopsy Shows That Acid Was Forced Down Throat of Little Fellow Found in Swamp.

(Special to The Evening World.) ALBANY, Jan. 12.-The five-year-old victim of the swamp murder may be George Lute of Ogdensburg. The police are now working on this theory and have got into communication with the Ogdensburg police. Every attempt is being made to establish the identity of the dead boy. Capt. Lash of the Albany detective force to-day learned that on last Saturday the Lute child disappeared from his home, and it is believed that he was kidnapped. "The story we get," said Capt. Lash "is that the mother of the Lute boy went out Saturday afternoon and left the child alone at home. When she returned he was gone. Such meagre decription of young Lute as we have able to get corresponds with that body found here. We hope for bre definite information to-night.
